

Betty Josephine Heil

October 28, 1949 - August 3, 2019

October 28, 1949 – August 3, 2019

Passed away peacefully while with her family surrounding her in love. She is the youngest daughter of late JD and Luella Ingram. She has three siblings: the late Butch Ingram, surviving sister Carol Waterman, and the late Pete Ingram. Her beloved surviving family includes her husband, Lewis Heil, their three children James Heil, Jennifer Albright, and Jaysen Heil. Along with their 13 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild, whom she loved all dearly.

Full of life and spunk starting in her early years, Betty was able to reel Lewis in by pulling a fast one on him. It would be a funny story to tell for many years later. After only eight months of dating, Lewis and Betty were married at The Little White Chapel in Las Vegas, Nevada.

She loved being a wife as much as she loved being a mother to their three children.

Betty loved life and the people in it. She loved to travel and be around family. Her wit and humor will always be remembered, as well as the way she cared and loved her family. The memory of Betty will live on through her husband, children, grandchildren, and great granddaughter.

Betty was the most amazing grandmother anyone could ask for. Her grandchildren adored her. She fell under that old saying, "If mom says no, ask grandma". Not only could she spoil her grandchildren, but she could lend an ear or a shoulder to cry on. She always had advice to give, even if it wasn't what someone wanted to hear. Her presence will be missed greatly. Especially on every October 28, the birthday she shared with her great grandchild. Even in her passing, her family will be celebrating her birthday yearly.

The memorial service will be at a residence September 1st. Contact family for details.
