“ Growing up with my brother was like riding a rollercoaster, we had our ups and downs...but oh what a great ride! He was the "Big Brother" that would "talk" to my dates-God help me! and he got into so much mischief that when I came along, I looked like a saint!

For many years our lives took completely different paths but in the last 10-15 years , we reconnected and have enjoyed our sibling relationship. Brandt was able to visit for the holidays and we talked frequently on the phone...I'll miss those calls and wish I could have helped him more...But I know hes happy being able to see mom and dad again and all his rainbow pals. LOVE YOU BIG BROTHER, Mickie Fogg

“ Bubba sort of "snuck up" on me as a friend. We met at Billy B's too many years ago to mention. At first we were just "nodding, how a do'n" acquaintances. Then I started to notice that Saturday nights at Billy's weren't as much fun if Bubba didn't show up. The more I got to know him the more I realized what a special, quirky, world wise person he was. Bubba became one of mine and Kelley's best friends and a part of our extended family. We recognized basic similarities in each other that we each respected, a similar work ethic, respect for our country and a sense of obligation to help make our small piece of the world a better place. We enjoyed good company, dancing and karaoke. I miss Bubba and will always be thankful that we were best friends.

“ This one was tough on my heart. You see Bubba would call me almost ever week if I didn't reach out to him. Oh it might of been a 2 minute call or a hour call depending on how he was feeling. We'd talk about Laws and our friends there that we were missing or we'd talk about Mini or his beloved Vette and the pinstripes and snake logos he was having put on it. And how grateful we both were to have each other. He will be missed RIP Bubba aka Mr No Fear you never met a song you were afraid to try. You always.

“ Met this wonderful man around 2013/2014. He loved to sing karaoke and that's how we met. He was a good friend. I loved how he could make you smile from just walking in, and loved his pet name for me, " The Bomb". Bubba, you are already deeply missed, and you're a quardian Angel now. Till we see each other again, Miss and Love you lots.

“ A kind and generous brother-in-law who marched to his own beat. Enjoyed his life, work, wife, friends and family.
